The Deans’ Hour with Q&A
9 – 10 a.m., Science Center 100

Join Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences Kate Costello-Sullivan, Ph.D.; Dean of the School of Graduate and Professional Studies Dennis DePerro, Ed.D.; and Dean of the Madden School of Business James Joseph ’83, as they provide an overview of undergraduate and graduate life at Le Moyne and answer parents’ questions. Questions will be moderated by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Thomas Brockelman.

Madden School of Business Open House
10 a.m. – Noon, Mitchell Hall
Tours: 10 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 11 a.m., and 11:30 a.m.

Stop in at Mitchell Hall, the home of the Madden School of Business, to learn more about the School, its programs, and the Trading Room. Students and staff will be on hand to answer any questions and provide tours.

Visual and Performing Arts Center Open House
10 a.m. – 12 p.m., W. Carroll Coyne Center for the Performing Arts

The Department of Visual and Performing Arts offers students many exciting opportunities to work, play, advance or discover their craft in theatre, music, dance, and art. Stop in at the open house to learn more about the arts at Le Moyne, meet faculty and students, and tour the Performing Arts Center. Students and faculty will be on hand to provide tours and answer questions.

A Multimedia Experience of Jesuit Spirituality
11:30 a.m., Classroom 405, Grewen Hall

Come have a mini-experience of Jesuit meditation that has changed people and the course of history for the past 500 years. The Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola are a workout for the soul. They help people to realize who they are and how to live a fulfilled life. Donald Maldari, S.J., associate professor of theology, will lead you through an introductory experience of the Exercises through visual art and music.

The Path to Meaningful Success: Personal and Professional Development
11:30 a.m., Reilley Room, Reilly Hall

Join Patricia Bevans ’96, director of the Office of Career Advising and Development, for an informal discussion about the programs, resources, and services available to Le Moyne students, with a special emphasis on internships and other career related experiences designed to enhance your student’s personal and professional development.

LSPB presents: Fall Fest 2015
Noon – 3 p.m., Tent on the Library Green

Come and join us for food, fall fun, and time with students, faculty, staff, alumni, and families! This year's fall fest will feature staple fall activities, as well as inflatables, music, and wagon rides. There is no charge for this event, but pre-registration is required.

Marnie Sundberg Schneider '03 (softball), a member of the Hall of Fame Class of 2014, will also be formally inducted into the Hall of Fame during the ceremony.

Performing Arts Showcase
7:30 – 9 p.m., Jesuit Theater, W. Carroll Coyne Center for the Performing Arts

Highlights from the Performing Arts Center including unscripted, unrehearsed, seat-of-their-pants comedy from the student-run improv theatre club: "No Scripts Attached," the award-winning vocal talents of the Jazzuits, and the amazing arrangements of Le Moyne's student-run a cappella group: "Fermata Nowhere."

Mentalist Robert Channing
9-10 p.m., Grewen Auditorium

Don’t miss mentalist Robert Channing’s thrilling show. Known as the world’s foremost mind reader, hypnotist and psychic entertainer, Channing can see without his eyes, predict the future and bend spoons without the use of his hands. Seating is limited. Pre-registration strongly encouraged. Cost: Adult: $10, Child (12 and under) and Le Moyne student: free.
